

E            B            A            E
Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart;
B                            A                            B
Naught be all else to me, save that Thou art
A            E            C#m            A            B
Thou my best Thought, by day or by night,
C#m            G#m            A            B            E
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

E            B            A            E
Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word;
B                            A                            B
I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord;
A            E            C#m            A            B
Thou my great Father, I Thy true son;
C#m            G#m            A            B            E
Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

E            B            A            E
Be Thou my battle Shield, Sword for the fight;
B                            A                            E
Be Thou my Dignity, Thou my Delight;
A            E            C#m            A            B
Thou my soul's Shelter, Thou my high Tower:
C#m            G#m            A            B            E
Raise Thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.

E            B            A            E
Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
B                            A                            B
Thou mine Inheritance, now and always:
A            E            C#m            A            B
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
C#m            G#m            A            B            E

High King of Heaven, my Treasure Thou art.

E                  B                  A          E

High King of Heaven, my victory won,

B                                  A                                  E

May I reach Heaven's joys, O bright Heaven's Sun!

A                  E                  C#m                  A          B

Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,

C#m                  G#m                  A          B          E

Still be my Vision, O Ruler of all.
